Course Selection Information

- Students cannot make schedule requests based on teacher or class period preference, extracurricular activities, or personal preference/schedule.
- Students are expected to attend classes as assigned during school hours.
- Students are making a commitment to the courses they choose for the duration of the course.
- The courses selected are not guaranteed. Balboa School has the right to change course offerings based on test results, individual school staffing, low enrollment in courses and other factors that may affect course offerings.
- Advanced Placement classes are rigorous, fast-paced courses that are equivalent to college-level classes. Balboa School suggests that students and their parent/guardian(s) make an informed decision regarding enrollment in an AP class.
